

Mike Lewis - Town Clerk (1999-2013)

Summarised by Graham Davies, LRM Research Team, Dec 2012, from report in View from Lyme Regis, Oct 24, 2012.

Mike Lewis (59), Lyme Regis town clerk, will retire in March 2013. He joined Lyme Regis town council in 1985, moving to the area from Kent, where he was assistant finance officer at police headquarters in Maidstone. He took over the duties of finance officer from the late Eric Griffin, who held the post for many years before him. Mike Lewis served under three town clerks - Robin Munday, Judith Amesbury and Nick Cornwall, before being elected to the job in 1999. He is married to a Lyme girl, the former Vivienne Rattenbury. They have four children and live in South Somerset. He is currently secretary of the Lyme-Barfleur Twinning Association.
